

“Missing Words” exercises

Exercise 1.

judge mercychange died to of policemen robbed years

John Brown was twenty-five _____ old when he _____ a bank in Los Angeles and, soon afterwards he killed two _____ who tried to arrest him. Two days later, he was caught, convicted _____ murder and sentenced _____ death. John Brown appealed to the _____ for _____, but he didn't _____ his decision. John subsequently _____ after 9 months in jail.

Exercise 2.

relationship border people together neighbor ties vast dominion

A land of _____ distances and rich natural resources, Canada became a self-governing _____ in 1867 while retaining _____ to the British crown. Economically and technologically the nation has developed _____ with the US, its _____ to the south across an unfortified _____. Its greatest problem is the _____ between the province of Quebec, with its French-speaking _____ and unique culture, and the remainder of the country.

Exercise 3.

assess executives perspective
effective styles rise contacts

Do you dream of becoming a more _____ leader? Do you hope to _____ to the top of your organization? Then consider coming to this year's National Leadership Conference. Our team of experts will _____ your management skills and give you specific advice on ways to improve. They will also discuss a variety of management _____ and help you to develop your own way of managing a team. Don't miss this opportunity to receive professional training and meet many new people. Your new _____ will include experienced trainers, as well as _____ who manage successful corporations all over the country. What you experience at the NLC may change your entire _____ on leadership!

Answers.

Exercise 1: years, robbed, policemen, of, to, judge, mercy, change, died

Exercise 2: vast, dominion, ties, together, neighbour, border, relationship, people

Exercise 3: effective, rise, assess, styles, contacts, executives, perspective