

ENGLISH SENTENCE BUILDING PRACTISE (1)

The teacher will choose 6 random words and you must use them to construct a sentence. Verbs must be conjugated correctly.

Adjectives	Verbs	Conjunctions	Colours	Sports	Professions	Nationalities	Clothes
old	go	and	red	football	doctor	American	socks
new	see	or	green	basketball	nurse	Australian	shoes
cheap	do	but	white	tennis	dentist	Argentinian	T-shirt
expensive	make	because	black	volleyball	taxi driver	Brazilian	shirt
clean	buy	when	pink	swimming	engineer	Chilean	jacket
dirty	walk	while	brown	running	secretary	Chinese	blouse
good	play	however	yellow	walking	accountant	French	pants
bad	work	so	orange	jogging	maid	German	sneakers pretty	take	then	purple	sailing	pilot	British	boots
ugly	get	though	grey	boxing	housewife	Greek	skirt intelligent	find		beige	gymnastics	TV Presenter	Dutch	dress stupid	lose		blue	aerobics	architect	Irish	tie
tall	drive		violet	weight lifting	truck driver	Italian	suit
short	look		turquoise	yoga	teacher	Japanese	coat boring	get up		cyan	skateboarding	professor	Mexican interesting	wake up			badminton		Polish
	switch on			squash		Portuguese switch off					Russian
	look for					Spanish
	wear					Swiss

ENGLISH SENTENCE BUILDING PRACTISE (2)

1. She has a cat.

Variations:

- make negative
- change pronoun (I, we, they, etc.)
- change quantity (a, two, many, etc.)
- add adjective(s) (big, nice, cute, etc.)
- make a question
- make a negative question
- add "why"
- add clause "which/that"
- add conjunction + second phrase (ex. "She doesn't have a black cat because she prefers white cats.")

2. He eats pizza.

Variations/add-ons:

- always
- on Friday
- at night
- with Maria
- adjective (pizza type, size)
- in/at Pizza Hut
- negative
- y/n question
- why

3. He gives flowers.

Variations/add-ons:

- to Lizzie
- on her birthday
- never
- y/n question
- why

4. Would you like a coffee?

Variations/add-ons:

- small
- black
- two
- after your sweet
- negative
- why
- negative question