

English Conversation – Agree/Disagree

1) Agree (too/neither)

To agree with a positive sentence, use “Me too.”

A) I like the Beatles. B) Me too.

A) I'm Canadian. B) Me too.

A) She's from Greece. B) Me too.

A) I like Polish food. B) Me too.

A) I love Curitiba. B) Me too.

A) He hates watermelon. B) Me too.

To agree with a negative sentence, use “Me neither.”

A) I don't like rap music. B) Me neither.

A) They are not French. B) Me neither.

A) I'm not from Belgium. B) Me neither.

A) I don't like rude people. B) Me neither.

A) I'm not happy today. B) Me neither.

A) He never tells lies. B) Me neither.

Exercise 1. Agree with the following statements using ‘Me too’ or ‘Me neither’:

1. I love sushi. _____

2. I'm very tired today. _____

3. I'm not interested. _____

4. I don't agree with him. _____

5. We aren't French. _____

6. She doesn't like the teacher. _____

7. I never read a newspaper. _____

8. She always arrives on time. _____

2) Disagree

To disagree with a positive sentence, use:

- “I’m not.” (the verb 'to be'), or
- “I don’t.” (all other verbs)

- | | |
|--------------------------|-------------|
| A) I’m Canadian. | B) I’m not. |
| A) I like 'The Beatles'. | B) I don’t. |
| A) She’s from Greece. | B) I’m not. |
| A) I like Polish food. | B) I don’t. |
| A) We are hungry. | B) I’m not. |
| A) He hates watermelon. | B) I don’t. |

To disagree with a negative sentence, use:

- “I am.” (the verb 'to be'), or
- “I do.” (all other verbs)

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------|
| A) They are not Brazilian. | B) I am. |
| A) I don’t like jazz. | B) I do. |
| A) I’m not from Brazil. | B) I am. |
| A) I don’t like Argentinians. | B) I do. |
| A) I’m not happy today. | B) I am. |
| A) He never arrives on time. | B) I do. |

Exercise 2. Disagree with the following statements:

1. I hate sushi. _____
2. I’m very tired today. _____
3. I’m not interested. _____
4. I don’t agree with him. _____
5. We aren’t British. _____
6. She doesn’t like the teacher. _____
7. I never read a newspaper. _____
8. She always arrives late. _____