

English Prepositions of Location

1. We have DSL Internet access at work, but I don't have a high-speed connection at home.
2. The kids are learning about the Civil War in their history class at school.
3. Toby was in the hospital for two weeks after his motorcycle accident on the freeway.
4. Jane and Debbie saw dolphins in the ocean while they were having a picnic on the beach.
5. Fred loves to go camping in the desert, but Kyle prefers to camp in the mountains.
6. The conference was held at a ski resort in Telluride, a small town in southwest Colorado.
7. You can buy stamps at the post office on Baker Street.
8. The old man who was standing on the corner shouted at the kids who were playing in the street.
9. While they were hiking on the mountain, Laura and Frank saw a bear in the woods.
10. They have a small house on a lake in the countryside. When I visit them, I always love to sit on the shore and watch the kids swimming in the lake.

Exercise.

1. You can buy rail passes _____ the ticket counter _____ any train station _____ the country.
2. The brown bears who live _____ the Island are the largest _____ the world.
3. There is no life _____ the moon, but there are many forms of life _____ the sea.
4. She bought her wedding dress _____ an exclusive shop _____ Fifth Avenue.
5. Nathan was able to exchange money _____ the exchange counter _____ the airport.
6. If you want anything to eat, there is a freshly baked chocolate cake _____ the table _____ the kitchen and plenty of food _____ the refrigerator.
7. While Shirley was _____ the department store _____ the shopping centre, she saw Evan and Lea _____ the furniture department.
8. While Dave was _____ the top of the Eiffel Tower, he could see several tourist boats _____ the River Seine.
9. I stood _____ a queue _____ thirty minutes _____ the ticket counter _____ the movie theatre to get tickets _____ the film.
10. Mike was sitting _____ his desk _____ work when Bill called.