

Flying_04: In Flight (Duration: 00:41)

This is Roy Conway, your captain, speaking. I have some good news. We have made up some lost time, and our ETA, that's "estimated time of arrival" in Denver, is now 7:45pm Mountain Time. If you wanna set your watches, it is now 7:21 Mountain Time, and we'll soon be commencing our descent into Denver. The temperature on the ground is 29°F with clear skies and some light snow cover. I hope you all remembered to pack your winter coats - it's mighty cold out there.
