

Vacations_02: Talking about Vacations (Duration: 00:44)

Wilbur and I went to this romantic quiet beach for our honeymoon. It was a shame that Wilbur got food poisoning – too much seafood. But we had a good time, when he wasn't feeling sick, that is.

The place I remember best is this little beach in southern England. It was lovely and peaceful.

Wilbur got lost of course, but the police found him. It was great weather and the place was great for couples, but Wilbur didn't put on any suntan lotion. He was badly sunburned. But the hospital was excellent - really wonderful!
