

As Time Goes By, by Herman Hupfeld

"As Time Goes By" is a jazz song written by Herman Hupfeld in 1931. It became famous when it was featured in the 1942 film Casablanca, performed by Dooley Wilson (1886-1953), who played Sam in the film. The American Film Institute voted it as the second best song from a film, surpassed only by "Over the Rainbow", sung by Judy Garland in the film "The Wizard of Oz (1939)". The song "As Time Goes By" is commonly used as a reflection of nostalgia in films.

You must remember this
A kiss is still a kiss
A sigh is just a sigh
The fundamental things apply
As time goes by

And when two lovers woo
They still say "I love you"
On that you can rely
No matter what the future brings
As time goes by

Moonlight and love songs are never out of date
Hearts full of passion, jealousy and hate
Woman needs man and man must have his mate
That no one can deny

It's still the same old story
A fight for love and glory
A case of "do or die"
The world will always welcome lovers
