

Madness – It Must be Love (1981)
(originally written by Labi Siffre in 1971)

I never thought I'd miss you
Half as much as I do,
And I never thought I'd feel this way,
The way I feel
About you.

As soon as I wake up
Every night, every day,
I know that it's you I need
To take the blues away.

It must be love, love, love!
It must be love, love, love!
Nothing more, nothing less,
Love is the best.

How can it be that we can
Say so much without words?
Bless you and bless me,
Bless the bees
And the birds.
I've got to be near you,
Every night, every day.
I couldn't be happy
Any other way.

It must be love, love, love!
It must be love, love, love!
Nothing more, nothing less,
Love is the best

As soon as I wake up
Every night, every day,
I know that it's you I need
To take the blues away.

It must be love, love, love!
It must be love, love, love!

It must be love, love, love...

Driving In My Car (1982)

I've been driving in my car, it's not quite a Jaguar
I bought it in Primrose Hill from a bloke from Brazil
It was made in fifty-nine in a factory by the Tyne
It says Morris on the door, the G.P.O. owned it before
I drive in it for my job, the governor calls me a slob
But I don't really care, give me some gas and the open air

It's a bit old but it's mine, I mend it in my spare time
Just last week I changed the oil, the rocker valves and the coil
Just last week I changed the oil
Last week it went round the clock, I also had a little knock
I dented somebody's fender, he learnt not to park on a bender, ha ha ha

I've been driving in my car, it don't look much but I've been far
I drive up to Muswell Hill, I've even been to Selsey Bill
I drove along the A45, I had her up to 58
This copper stopped me the other day, "You're mistaken", what could I say?
The tyres were a little worn, they were O.K., I could have sworn
I like driving in my car, I'm satisfied I've got this far

I like driving in my car, it don't look much but I've been far
I like driving in my car, even with a flat tyre
I like driving in my car, it's not quite a Jaguar
I like driving in my car, I'm satisfied I've got this far
