

English Vocabulary - Transport

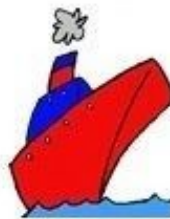

(air)plane

bicycle / bike

boat

ship

tram

van truck

moped / vespa / scooter

motorbike / motorcycle

metro / subway / tube / underground

taxi

train

car

bus / coach

scooter

How do we go?
by plane
by car by taxi by bus by ship by train

on foot (walk)

Questions about buses and trains:

- Can you tell me the time of the next train to Chicago, please?
- Is it direct?
- Is there a restaurant car? (train only)
- What platform does it leave from?
- What time does it leave?
- What time does it arrive?
- How long is the journey?

Questions about flying:

- How much is a flight to New York?
- Is it a direct flight?
- Is food served?
- Which terminal does it leave from? / Which gate does it leave from?
- I would like a window seat, please. / I would like an aisle seat, please.
- What time must I check in?
- What time does it take off?
- What time does it land?
- How long is the flight?

Buying a bus ticket:

A: I'd like a ticket to San Francisco, please.

B: Single or return?

A: Return. How much is it?

B: It's $30 peak time, or $25 off-peak.

A: What times are off-peak?

B: Between 10am and 3pm.

A: OK. I'll travel off-peak then, thanks. Can I reserve a seat?

B: Yes, but it's an extra $5.

A: Is it direct or are there any connections?

B: It's direct. No connections.

A: Great. What is the time of the first off-peak bus?

B: 11:30.

A: Thanks very much. Here is the money.

B: Here is your ticket. Your seat is 16A. Have a good trip.

A: Thanks. Bye.