

Words beginning with 'O'

1. The shellfish where we find pearls. _____
2. A thick black liquid called 'Black Gold'. _____
3. The adjective which means "of the mouth". _____
4. The numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, and 9 are _____
5. A sea animal with eight tentacles. _____
6. A vegetable that makes you cry when you cut it. _____
7. The internal organs of an animal used as food. _____
8. A semitransparent gemstone – a hydrated amorphous form of silica. _____
9. A synonym of "one time". _____
10. If something belongs to you, you are its _____

Words beginning with 'P'

1. A person who brings up a child. _____
2. The opposite of "rich". _____
3. They say that money and _____ corrupt. _____
4. Describes something that is valuable and special. _____
5. Describes somebody who always arrives on time. _____
6. A vivid colour that girls often like. _____
7. English people often use this word, to be polite. _____
8. Two things that are always together. _____
9. Something children often use to write or draw. _____
10. Something that you use to colour the walls of a house. _____